DUCE BROOKLYN'S LEAD. Two Leaders Begin an Important Series Today-The New Yorks Capture Another Onesided Contest From the Cincinnatis and the St. Louis Experts Provide a Surprise.

The Brooklyns played a double-header with the Chicagos yesterday and by winning and losing they gave another exhibition of "in and out" ball. It was the first series to be completed by the Champions and they broke even, each team winning ten games. Meanwhile the each team withing ten games. Meanwhile the won their fifth straight game from the Bostons and also reduced the Brooklyns' lead to 49 The Pittsburgs will tackle the Cham-Washington Park to-day, which is the beginning of a series that appears to have direct bearing on the championship. In all five games must be played by the two leaders before Saturday night, which probably means le-headers to-morrow and Saturday The New Yorks, who are also climbing rapidly took another one-sided game from the Cincinnatis who are in danger of falling below the St. Louis team, as the latter by defeating Philadelphia, got to within one point of the Reds.

BROOKLYN, 9, CHICAGO, 4-FIRST GAME. With the star pitcher, Joe McGinnity, in the box, the Brooklyns had very little trouble in winning the first game from the Chicagos at Washington Park yesterday. The Champions played great bail in all departments and were simply invincible. They hit Taylor freely, and as the latter had ragged support from both McCormick and Childs' run making was a comparatively easy task for Hanlon's men. The clean hitting of the Brooklyns and their swift base running were the real features. Everytime one of the Champions made an attempt to steal second he landed there in safety. the fourth inning the Champions made three runs on Farrell's three-bagger, McGinnity's three-bagger Jones' single and two outs, while in three-bagger. Jones' single and two outs, while in the fifth imming four more runs were rolled up on Datien's base on bails, Paly's two-bagger, another three-bagger by Farrell, a single by McGinnity, a steal and an error by McGornick. These runs cinched matters and after that the Chicagos seemed to lose heart. A running catch by Keeler of a low liner from McCarthy's but in the fourth and several fine stops by Cross and Bradley were noteworthy plays. McGinnity in three batsinen with pitched bails, an inisual proceeding for him.

So handly had the first game been won by the Brocklyns that the crowd of 2,400 cranks looked for another triumph when the second game began. Manager Hanlon put Young game began. Manager Hanlon put Young Howell into the box, and the support he received was something wierd in the extreme. The Brocklyns simply showed that it is possible for them to play "in and out" ball at any time. Their fielding was not only poor, but they couldn't hit Menefee when hits meant runs, and also ran the bases with ill-timed judgment. For the first four innings it looked like a fast, snappy game with a simall score. But in the Chicagos' fifth there was an explosion which turned out eight runs for which Howell was entirely blameless. McCornick opened with an easy grounder that Dahlen fumbled. Then Menefee o the outfield in a vain McCormick off at second.

Daly's head into the description of the second attempt to shut McCormick off at second McCarthy's sacrifice, which should have been the third out, moved the runners along and then the trouble began. Childs singled, Mertes bunted safely, Dexter fouled to Cross, Green bunted safely, Donahue's easy pop-fly was muffed by Dahlen, Bradley singled and McCormick wound up the raily with a four-bagger to left centre. When the side was finally retired the game looked so much like a defeat for the Reaching that many of the cranks began to the cranks began to be Champions, to that their task was hopeless r after that they did not overexert them for after that they did not overexert themselves. Bradley got a home run in the seventh on a smash that Kelley appeared to misjudge. The Chicagos, in striking contrast to their play in the first game, fielded without an error and put up a hustling article of ball all the way through. Three hot double plays by the visitors were among the features. Bradley, Childs and Green also made sensational plays. Daly's batting and fielding was a redeeming feature as far as the home team was concerned. The scores:

Holy Cross College Dispenses With Star Mer Who Played on Semt-Professional Teams.

WORCESTER, Sept. 5 .- The faculty of Holy Cross College has instituted a vigorous policy against professionalism in athletic sports. To-day is the opening of the fall term, and it as announced that Carney, Griffln and Brennan, three of the star men on last season's baseball team, had been refused permission to play on the baseball team of 1901. All of these men have been playing with semi-prothese men have been playing with semi-pro-fessional teams during the summer. This was against the express orders of the faculty, it is said, and when the men presented themselves at the college to-day they were informed that there was no room for them in the baseball arena. Griffin and Brennan comprised the star battery of last season's team. The for-mer was considered one of the best college pitchers of the year. Brennan had few super-iors as a catcher. Carney was an outfielder and change pitcher. He was to be captain of the team of 1901. The three men have de-cided not to attend Holy Cross, but further than this have no definite plans.

Sheehan, the new infielder recently signed by the New York club, was released yesterday. Next Sunday at the Weehawken grounds the Cin-cinnatt Reds will play an exhibition game with the West New York Field Club.

Regatta Committee Considering Protests

Arising From Newport Cup Races. NEWPORT, Sept. 5.-The Regatta Committee of the Newbort Yacht Racing Associat held a session this morning at the New York Yacht Club station to take testimony in the Yankee-Mineola protests, resulting from the races sailed off Newport this summer. The decision of the committee is awaited with great interest, as it will either give the $1,000 cup to the Yankee or will make a tie in points between the Yankee and Mineola, and another race may have to be sailed between the two boats to decide which shall have the cup. At the meeting this morning there appeared August Belmont, owner of the Mineola and Herman B. Duryea and Harry Payne Whitney, owners of the Yankee. The hearing was behind closed doors, and a stenographer was present to take the testimony. The meeting lasted two hours, but the committee had nothing to make public when an adjournment was made. Mr. Belmont brought with him Capt. Robert Wringe, but the skipper did not appear before the committee. The Yankee, Rainbow and Virginia will leave here at the end of the week for the westward, to be on hand for the races off New York. races sailed off Newport this summer. The Wa Wa Scores Another Victory in the 30-Foot Class.

NEWPORT, Sept. 5 .- The 30-footers raced this afternoon for a cup offered by Mr. Winthrop Rutherfurd, who has been sailing Vaquero III all the summer. It was won by the WaWa, all the summer. It was won by the WaWa, sailed by Reginald Brooks. All seven boats started and in a good southwest wind sailed to Dyer's Island and return, a run out and a beat back. Vaquero III. was sailed by Mr. Herman B. Duryea, her owner, and she came in second. The Hera got the start, but on the run up the bay she was passed by the Wa Wa and when the boats hauled on the wind Vaquero III. also weathered her. The outer mark was turned at 4:30. All the boats took the west shore in the windward work. Capt. Parker of the Rainbow sailed on the Polywog. The summary:

Anoatok Wins When Badly Handicapped.

The race between the 36-footers Anoatok and Countess at Larchmont on Monday was one of the best of the season. The Anoatok one of the best of the season. The Anoatok was sold early in the season by Oswald Sanderson who had a new yacht, the Countess, built by Herreshoff. These two yachts met for the first time on Monday and the rivalry was very keen. Capt. Dennis of the Amorita was on board the Anoatok and it was through his work that the yacht won. First of all she broke her bobstay. Dennis managed to get a tackle on the stay and saved any further damage. Then her port shroud went. The yacht was put about at once and the damage repaired temporarily. When the Anoatok crossed the finishing line she was so badly crippled that she had to be towed to her moorings.

Alterations to Alerion.

A. H. Alker is having some slight alterations made to the 30-footer Alerion which he thinks made to the 30-footer Alerion which he thinks will improve that boat's speed very much. The bowsprit has been lengthened and a new suit of sails is being made which will be used in next Saturday's race for the first time. In the race at Larchmont last Monday the Alerion broke her spreader and was forced to withdraw. E. M. Maclellan is handling the yacht for Mr. Alker, and the changes are being made at his suggestion. to the Front in an Overnight Handicap. Large fields with a sprinkling of quality were the order at Sheepshead Bay yesterday. Weather and track conditions favored the outing and the attendance was well up to the average mid-week standard. Makers and followers of favorites had a rather bad time of it, as only two first choices pulled through, with one at almost prohibitive odds. The full field of fourteen two-year-olds turned out for the opening dash of six furlongs on the main track. Their chances looked so equal that odds of 5 to 1 were offered against the nominal favorite, Strategist. James Rowe uncovered another of his remarkable Domino crop, The Regent, and pulled down the purse The Golden Prince made the running for three furlongs, with Bowen and The Regent close up. The finish lay between these three, and The Regent, The Golden Prince and Bowen crossed the line heads apart. The winner was entered for the small sum of $500, but no bidder entered for the small sum of $500, but no bidder materialized.

No pronounced favorite could be found in the handicap which followed, but the talent finally selected Rockton in preference to Mc-Meekin. The speedy filly Ramara, quoted at 8 to 1, threatened to upset all calculations by leading her field all the way to the stretch. Then McMeekin and Whistling Con joined issue and finished first and second in a desperate drive with Kamara third. The three were only heads apart when they passed the judges, while the favorite was at Kamara's saddle girths and only a neck in front of Hardly. The latter ran a remarkable race, as he get away last ana trailed behind his field until the final furlong.

This led up to one of the star features of the day—the Belles Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, down the Futurity course. Twelve smart youngsters were colored on the card, but the Pepper Stable took out its two candidates and in S of, Mary McCoy and Maria Bolton were also withdrawn. The hiatus was promptly filled by Noonday, Ad 1 and Glemnellie. Sweet Lavender rule. favori e and made a bold bid for the money, but Noonday outfooted her from the drop of the fing and won by a length and a half, scoring another signal triumph for James Rowe and his Domino kindergarten.

With two safely over the plate for the Keenes, it was up to the Whitney stable to do something in the fourth race. The event was the rich September Stakes for three-year-olds, at one mile and three furlongs, with four starters and the Whitney filly Killashandra an oddsoon favorite. Motley, an added entry at 12 to 1, kept her rivals guessing for over a mile and showed the way to the last sixteenth pole where Killashandra raced past and won comfortably by a length. Advance Guard came from behind and took the place from Motley by a length and a half while, James was only a head away.

All the eight star sprinters turned out for the fifth race, a dash of six furlongs on the main track. Richard J. was the choice of the talent, but found the company too warm for him.

The Columbia 'Varsity football men are getting ready for the coming season. Coach Sanford expresses confidence in the material in hand and says that a powerful team will take the field providing he can develop two take the field providing he can develop two fast ends, two strong guards and a kicking full back. Sanford will devote his entire attention this year to the playing of the eleven, while the physical condition of the men will be looked after by Dr. A. J. Kenyon, William Kerry, a former Yale trainer, and Ernest tijertberg, the ex-amateur champion distance runner, all of whom have just been engaged by Manager W. B. Shoemaker.

It is thought now that Capt. Simons will not be able to play this fall because of an injured knee, in which event he will probably resign the captaincy. Former Captain Bert Wilson, who is still at Columbia but is ineligible because of the five year rule, will assist Sanford in the coaching.

A most promising candidate for end rush is H. S. Johnson, the sprinter, whose record is the scientific strength test is the best at the university. Joe Knipe, the heavyweight bover, Prince of the Vars ty crew, and Fay and Williams of last year's eleven are among the candidates for guard. As soon as the university opens Sanford will look over the freshmen and hopes to find some future stars. News of the Wheelmen. BOSTON, Sept. 5.-Spectators at the Charles River Park to-night were treated to a two hours' exhibition of pluck and hard riding that has not been equalled on a track in this vicinity for a long time. The occasion was the openfor a long time. The occasion was the opening night of the second golden wheel race of four nights running, two hours a night, and the race was one of continual accident, in which no one was seriously hurd, but which so changed the aspect of the race at different times that it was impossible to determine who would be the leader for the night. It finally resulted, however, in Will Stinson, the Cambridge boy, going to the held of the class, after having reeled off 67 2-3 miles, and Champion next, with 66 miles 355 yards to his Champion next, with 66 miles 355 yards to his credit. MacEachern was third, with 65 miles 1,467 yards, and Jimmy Moran fourth, with 63 miles and something of er a third of a mile. The riders cut out a hot pace from the very start, but bucking motors and defective mounts compelled them to change frequently, until compelled them to change frequently, until at last Champion's two motors utterly refused to work, and Kent of his pacing team got out on a single wheel and pulled around for a mile or two. Champion could not seems to get fast enough pace, and at one time threatened to punch his rear motorman with his fist. A fall came to Moran in the last half hour, and this seemed to tell upon him, for he rode wild and as though he was very tired for the rest of the time. Stinson fell through, catching his wheel against that of Moran, as he passed, but was up and mounted again immediately. The hot pace told sadly on Moran, with the jar of his fall, and he tell back from second to fourth place at the finish. For several years the sloop yacht Bonnie Doon has been the fastest boat of its kind on the Great South Bay, and this in spite of the fact that each year some new yacht has been built with the idea of defeating the Bonnie Doon. This year there were two boats built by Herresnoft for H. O. Havemeyer. They were the Electra and the Impatience. On Labor Day in the regatta of the Penataquit Corinthian Yacht Club the Impatience raced against the Bonnie Doon. The yachts raced to the windward and return. On the beat the Impatience took the lead, but as soon as the yachts started down the wind the Bonnie Doon soon drew up on her rival and passing her won the race by 1 minute and 13 seconds. The wind was true throughout the race and the yachts had a fair test. The Bonnie Doon still retains her title of Queen of the Bay. She has not met the Electra yet, but the Impatience is thought to be faster than the Electra. the Great South Bay, and this in spite of the

New Record Made in Trial Against Time at

HE TROTS A MILE IN 2:04 3-4, BEAT-ING DIRECTUM'S FIGURES.

Charter Oak Park, While Directum Accomplished His 2:05 1-4 in a Heat Race-Running Horse Outstripped in First Quarter. HARTFORD, Sept. 5 .- The feature of to-day's card at Charter Oak Park was the sensational mile of the stallion Cresceus. In his attempt to beat his own record of 2:06 he trotted a mile in 2.04%, dethroning the stallion king Directum, who has worn the crown since 1893, when he went a mile in 2:05% in a third heat of a race at Nashville, Tenn, on Oct. 18 of that year. Many left the track when the trial trip against the watch was made, for it came at the tail end of the regular programme. A stiff breeze prevailed nearly all the afternoon and Ketcham delayed the trial until it had subsided and it was nearly 6 o'clock when he drove on to the track with his great horse. He was accompanied by a runner driven by John Dickerson, and another runner was stationed at the half-mile pole to join them when they and covered half the mile. After three or four limbering up brushes through the stretch Ketcham turned the chestnut horse about, set him going at perfect stroke, nodded for the word and Starter Waker shouted "Go!" Simultaneously a hundred watches began to tick off the seconds. Cresceus shot bravely to the quarter in 31¼ seconds, with the runner four open lengths back, The runner drew up in the second quarter and was at his wheel as he flashed by the half in 1:12%. Here the runner, driven by Ben Walker, cut in and with one at either wheel to encourage him the chestnut stallion split the air with speed.

It took him just 2015 seconds to cover the third quarter, and as the watches stopped at 1:33 4 every one realized that the stallion record was hanging in the balance. With the runners at his flanks the plucky stallion bid defiance to time and swept up to the wire winner of the stallion crown. The performance was greeted with great applause. The official time for the mile was 2:04%, and some outside watches caught it a fraction of a second faster. The regular races were run off in good time, two of them—the 2:12 class pacing and the 2:15 class pacing—being taken in a raight beats, do mny Agan, the favorite, taking the former and Stacker Taylor the latter. Commor won the 2:09 pacing, getting the first, third and fifth heats. He paced the first mile in 2:04%. Charley Herr was too fast for his field in the 2:10 class trot-

King Humbert Wins at McKees Rocks.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 5.—The second day of the fall meeting at McKees Rocks furnished exciting sport. It was nipand tuck to each heat. King Humbert was the only favorite who won. In the fifth heat his driver palpably falled to drive him and a howl was raised by the spectators. All bets were declared off and the 'river was compelled to win the sixth and last heat or be expelled with the horse. After a hot struggle with Red Cliff the favorite won out. The game was originally scheduled to take place at Philadelphia on July 3 and 4, but at the request of the Philadelphians it was changed to Sept. 1 and 3. This date was again changed, and the Associated Cricket Clubs proposed to play it on Sept. 14 and 15.

NEW JERSEY WINS HILTON TROPHY. New York Riffemen Lead at End of Second Stage-Sergt. McAlpin's High Scere

SEA GIRT, Sept. 5.—The interest in the fifth day's meeting of the New Jersey State Rifle Association did not lag to-day. On the contrary, the ranges were occupied from the hour they were opened at 9 o'clock until they closed at 6. Very little wind was stirring, and nothing interfered with the work of the sharpshooters.

The event of the day was the match for the Hilton trophy, valued at $3,000. The match was the second of the three under the auspices of the National Rifle Association and attracted teams from New York, New Jersey, District of Columbia and the Eleventh Infantry, U.S. A. which returned from Porto Rico only two weeks ago. The distances were 200, 500 and 600 yards, seven shots at each target, twelve men to a

At the end of the first stage at 200 yards Washington and New York tied with a score of 352 each. New Jersey was third 3 points behind, while the regulars were hopelessly in the rear. New York took the lead at the second stage of the match with a score of 723. New Jersey came next with 721, and the Washington boys third with 718. The regulars made only 531.

New Jersey came next with 721, and the Washington boys third with 718. The regulars made only 531.

New Jersey won the trophy by fine shooting at the final ranges; duplicating its play of last year in the same contest when it defeated Georgia. The Jersey men, who shot with Krag rifles at the request of Gen. Buffington, Chief of Ordinance, U. S. A., scored 1,682 and led the District of Columbia by 16 points. New York was third with 1,657, while the regular infantry men trailed in the rear with 772. The last named are not sharpshooters and did not enter the match with the expectation of winning. New York seemed to have an excellent chance of winning when shooting began at the 600-ranges, but they went all to pieces and finished their stage with only 334. Massachusetts entered a team of six men in the Hilton trophy for the purpose of getting some practice and determining if it was eligible to compete in the Palma or Centennial trophy at the two stages on Friday and Saturday.
